Motion for a resolution

Recital A

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A. whereas the NLF has improved the consistency and efficiency of product legislation in the single market through harmonised conformity assessments, market surveillance and notified body accreditation;

A. whereas the NLF has improved the consistency and efficiency of product legislation in the single market through harmonised conformity assessments, market surveillance and notified body accreditation; plays an important role for competitiveness of European industry; brings safe and state-of-the-art technologies to the EU single market fast, with appropriate cost, and with a low level of bureaucratic burden

Or. en

Amendment 19

Aura Salla

Motion for a resolution

Recital A

Motion for a resolution

A. whereas the NLF has improved the consistency and efficiency of product legislation in the single market through harmonised conformity assessments, market surveillance and notified body accreditation;

Amendment

A. whereas the New Legislative Framework has improved the consistency and efficiency of product legislation in the single market through applying the same model provisions in EU product legislation aligning definitions, obligations of economic operators, the use of conformity assessment for CE marking and the voluntary application of harmonised standards to show conformity with EU product legislation;

Or. en

Amendment 20

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas the need for a more consistent and transparent regulatory environment, the New Legislative Framework (NLF) 2008 establishes a unified set of rules to ensure that products placed on the European Union market meet consistent safety and quality standards, contributing to a high level of consumer protection across Member States being recognised;

Or. en

Amendment 21
Henrik Dahl

Motion for a resolution
Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas clear, proportionate and high-quality legislation is essential for strengthening Europe's competitiveness; whereas reducing regulatory burden, including through offsetting measures such as the 'one in, one out' principle, is particularly important to support SMEs and foster innovation;

Or. en

Amendment 22

Peter Agius, Inese Vaidere, Dimitris Tsiodras, Arba Kokalari, Marion Walsmann

Motion for a resolution
Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas a revision of the NLF is needed to adapt and modernise product legislation and reduce administrative burden for economic operators; considers that the primary focus of the NLF revision should be the simplification of product compliance, particularly through digitalisation;

Or. en

Amendment 23
Sandro Gozi, Svenja Hahn, Anna-Maja Henriksson

Motion for a resolution
Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas the revision of the NLF will be a key tool to strengthen the market surveillance framework, to address the challenges posed by e-commerce and the evolving nature of digitally connected products, as well as to adapt to the new circular economy requirements.

Or. en

Amendment 24

Arba Kokalari

Motion for a resolution

Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas effective and market driven European standardisation has been and will remain crucial to increase competitiveness and reduce the regulatory burden for businesses by simplifying EU legislation and strengthening the Single Market;

Or. en

Amendment 25

Aura Salla

Motion for a resolution

Recital A a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A a. whereas the New Legislative Framework is an efficient and effective tool for fostering European competitiveness having evolved alongside the maturation of the single market;

Or. en

Amendment 26

Peter Agius, Inese Vaidere, Dimitris Tsiodras, Arba Kokalari, Marion Walsmann

Motion for a resolution

Recital A b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A b. whereas the NLF has proved itself as an effective tool for fostering European competitiveness marking an important evolution from the ‘Old Approach’ where legislation in the single market was overtly prescriptive, to the ‘New Approach’ which outlines the essential requirements and avoids prescribing too detailed technical requirements while allowing development and innovation to flourish via the private public partnership of the European standardisation system;

Or. en

Amendment 27

Aura Salla

Motion for a resolution

Recital A b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A b. whereas legislation formed under the Old Approach was widely acknowledged as inefficient, overtly prescriptive, and a hindrance to the circulation of goods and services as it resulted in legal texts that attempted to detail every technical and administrative requirement; these inefficiencies necessitated the creation of the New Approach;

Or. en

Amendment 28

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A b. whereas the NLF can reduce unnecessary administrative burdens for manufacturers, especially SMEs, while maintaining rigorous safety and compliance standards to improve market access and facilitates the circulation of safe products across the EU;

Or. en

Amendment 29

Arba Kokalari

Motion for a resolution

Recital A b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A b. whereas it is essential to safeguard the NLF and market driven standardisation and to avoid technical requirements being defined by legislators;

Or. en

Amendment 30

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A c. whereas the Digital Product Passport (DPP) should serve as a central instrument to promote transparency, traceability, and informed decision-making by consumers and authorities alike; whereas a horizontal, cross-sectoral implementation—covering new, second-hand, refurbished, and remanufactured products—would reduce fragmentation in sustainability reporting and ensure coherence across the internal market; whereas making the DPP the main point of reference for market surveillance authorities and customs bodies would support more risk-based, efficient enforcement, while contributing to the EU's climate goals and circular economy strategies;

Or. en

Amendment 31
Aura Salla

Motion for a resolution
Recital A c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A c. whereas the foundational principle of the New Approach - which avoids the creation of prescriptive legislation by restricting content to 'essential requirements' and underpinned by the developed of European standards to support EU legislation is crucial; stresses that the New Legislative Framework cannot function properly without the New Approach;

Or. en

Amendment 32
Peter Agius, Inese Vaidere, Dimitris Tsiodras, Arba Kokalari, Marion Walsmann

Motion for a resolution
Recital A c (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A c. whereas the NLF maintains a key role, as an element of the European standardisation system, in promoting innovation, encouraging voluntary contributions from technical experts and bringing the state-of-the-art of technology into the European single market;

Or. en

Amendment 33

Elisabeth Grossmann, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A d. whereas the evaluation of the NLF of 2022 offers a valuable opportunity to integrate its findings into the revision process, ensuring that the European Union's regulatory framework remains adaptable to technological advancements, digitalisation, sustainability, and evolving market needs; whereas this process must assess the NLF's effectiveness, efficiency, and relevance, with particular attention to the European Parliament's priorities such as social inclusivity and environmental responsibility; whereas the findings and recommendations of the 2022 evaluation should serve as a solid foundation for future legislative actions aimed at enhancing the NLF's capacity to safeguard consumers, promote innovation, and uphold high standards of product safety and quality across all industries in alignment with the EU's strategic goals;

Motion for a resolution Recital A d (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A d. whereas recent legislation has increasingly ignored the principles of the New Approach; reasserts that legislation must not stray from outlining the essential requirements into technical details; cites the AI Act's problems with standardisation development as an example of the importance of having clear essential requirements, warns that reverting back to the inefficient 'Old Approach' would harm European competitiveness;

Or. en

Amendment 35

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution Recital A e (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A e. whereas the evaluation of the MSR is not yet part of the NLF revision but will be finalized by December 2026, the MSR plays a pivotal role in enhancing the effectiveness of market surveillance across the European Union; whereas the MSR is part of the broader effort to ensure that products in the EU market meet high safety standards and do not pose risks to consumers or the environment, outlines the responsibilities of market surveillance authorities and the enforcement of compliance measures; whereas in particular Article 4 focuses on the obligations of national authorities to ensure that products placed on the market meet the required safety and conformity standards; whereas the Commission is aware of existing loopholes and proposes to address them through targeted revisions to strengthen the enforcement framework; whereas a more coordinated cross-border mechanism could enhance the overall effectiveness of market surveillance;

Or. en

Amendment 36

Aura Salla

Motion for a resolution

Recital A e (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A e. whereas the European Standardisation Organisations (ESO) provide an open, transparent and inclusive environment for the development of harmonised European standards in support of European regulation

Or. en

Amendment 37

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A f (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A f. whereas a significant challenge is the increasing sale of products through online platforms; whereas the rapid pace of e-commerce and the difficulty in identifying responsible parties, such as non-EU sellers or intermediaries, create enforcement challenges; whereas loopholes in tracking and taking action against online sellers who fail to comply with EU regulations persist, allowing non-compliant products to be sold without adequate oversight;

Or. en

Amendment 38

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A g (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A g. whereas the NLF aims for harmonized enforcement, the implementation and oversight of conformity assessment bodies vary across EU Member States; whereas some countries may be more diligent in carrying out inspections and enforcing compliance, while others may face delays or lack of prioritization; whereas this inconsistent enforcement can create disparities in product safety levels and foster an uneven internal market;

Or. en

Amendment 39

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A h (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A h. whereas the revision of the NLF must continuously evolve to address emerging risks, such as the increasing presence of new technologies or hazardous substances in product;

Or. en

Amendment 40

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A i (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A i. whereas an EU-wide certification scheme for refurbishers and repairers would promote higher level of professionalism among them, enhance consumer trust, and ensure fair treatment of compliant operators across Member States;

Or. en

Amendment 41

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A j (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A j. whereas the absence of access to essential technical documentation and declarations of conformity for independent refurbishers and repairers undermines their ability to carry out lawful and safe repairs, and may prevent them from ensuring product compliance with Union rules;

Or. en

Amendment 42

Elisabeth Grossmann, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution
Recital A k (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A k. whereas reduced VAT rates for reused, repaired and refurbished products, particularly when sold by social economy actors, would serve as vital fiscal incentive to promote sustainable consumption patterns, extend product lifespans, and support inclusive, low-carbon business models;

Or. en

Amendment 43

Elisabeth Grossmann, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution
Recital A l (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A l. whereas the NLF in place fails to enhance the mutual recognition of conformity assessments by providing clear, standardized procedures for product testing and certification;

Or. en

Amendment 44

Elisabeth Grossmann, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution
Recital A m (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A m. whereas the New Legislative Framework (NLF) must ensure that conformity assessment procedures are harmonised, robust, and remain fit for purpose in addressing the increasing complexity of digital and interconnected products, including cybersecurity risks and evolving technological features, while prioritising the safety and rights of consumers; whereas the framework should include clear and binding guidelines to ensure consistent application across Member States, uphold high standards of product safety, and promote fairness and transparency in the internal market; whereas the role of notified bodies must be strengthened by enhancing transparency, independence, and competence within the accreditation system, ensuring they can effectively respond to the challenges of digitalisation and the circular economy, while safeguarding the interests of both businesses—especially SMEs—and consumers alike;

Or. en

Amendment 45

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A n (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A n. whereas e-commerce plays a substantial role in shaping consumer experiences by facilitating enhanced convenience, broadening access to a wide range of goods and services, and enabling consumers to benefit from more affordable purchasing options; whereas, at the same time, it poses significant consumer protection challenges, including exposure to unsafe or non-compliant products, disparities in the accessibility, clarity and comparability of information, and commercial practices designed to exploit behavioural biases and vulnerabilities of consumers;

Or. en

Amendment 46

Elisabeth Grossmann, Christel Schaldemose, Maria Grapini, Biljana Borzan, Adnan Dibrani, Brando Benifei

Motion for a resolution

Recital A o (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A o. whereas the NLF strengthens the role of Notified Bodies in the conformity assessment process, ensuring that they operate under clear, transparent, and consistent rules, thus increasing confidence in the validity of product certifications and facilitating the recognition of products in all EU Member States;

Or. en

Amendment 47

Sandro Gozi, Svenja Hahn, Anna-Maja Henriksson
